(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

A statement is attached of the facts underlying the failure to timely pay the issue fee of the subject application. The statement is made by the person in the applicant's office who is most familiar with those facts.

The applicant believes these facts are sufficient to support a case of unavoidable abandonment. If the Office determines otherwise, and only in that event, the applicant requests revival for unintentional abandonment under 37 CFR 1.137(b), and in such event, authorization is hereby given to charge Deposit Account 05-1328 for the fee difference of $1,000.00 between unavoidable and unintentional abandonment.
